1. Francisco CASTILLO, member of the Partido Comunista Peruano (PCP), stated on 21 April 1953 that a meeting is being planned for Mexico City of all Latin American Communists who are at present exiled from their home countries.
2. CASTILLO did not say when the meeting would be held, but explained that Mexico had been selected as the meeting place because it offered greater security and a broader field for continuing the pro-peace campaign and making plans to help the comrades who are still in prison.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment

25X1A [REDACTED] concerns Communist plans for coordinated action in protest against repressive measures.
